

Richard Rennehan

Halifax, Nova Scotia, B3L 4V7

Phone: (902) 875-6389 • E-mail: rrennehan@gmail.com

Site: rrennehan.github.io

Career Goal:

To become a data analyst who can breathe new life into the field with energy, positivity, and forethought.

Technical Skills:

- Strong - Business Analysis Essentials.
- Strong - Querying databases using SQL with Access, Oracle, and SQL Server.
- Strong - Database Design and Management using Access, Oracle, and SQL Server.
- Strong - Programming concepts with Python and Java.
- Strong - Hardware and Operating Systems: Documentation and working with parts.
- Strong - Website structure and design using HTML and CSS.
- Developing - Object Oriented Programming with Python and Java.
- Developing - Statistics using R.
- Developing - Local IP networking and subnetting.

Strengths:

- Strong critical-thinker. Strong problem solving skills.
- Strong written and verbal communication skills. Strong documentation skills.
- Adaptive. Can work individually or as part of a team.
- Focused, strategic, and a strong multitasker. Good attention to detail.
- Trustworthy, open-minded and compassionate.
- Innovative and an independent thinker.

Education:

Nova Scotia Community College Institute of Technology:

- Information Technology Data Analyst Diploma (Sept. 2017 - May 2019).

Shelburne Regional High School:

- Earned High School Diploma in June 2017.

Experiences:

- Professional tutor who helped students develop an understanding and love for programming at NSCC (Fall 2017).
- Volunteered for Big Data Conference, North America's largest business-focused data conference (Nov. 7, 2017).