Richard Rennehan

Halifax, Nova Scotia, B3L 4V7

Phone: (902) 875-6389 • E-mail: rrennehan@gmail.com • Site: rrennehan.github.io

_____

Technical Skills:

- Business Analysis Essentials (SLDC, Project Management, etc.)
- Querying databases using SQL with Access, Oracle, and SQL Server.
- Database Design and Management using Access, Oracle, and SQL Server.
- Object Oriented Programming with Java and Python.
- Hardware and Operating Systems: Documentation and working with parts.
- Website structure and design using HTML and CSS.
- Statistics using R.
- Microsoft Office Suite

Strengths:

- Strong critical-thinker. Strong problem solving skills. A must when I code programs
- Strong written and verbal communication skills. A necessity for when I present reports
- Adaptive. Can work individually or as part of a team.
- Focused, strategic, and a strong multitasker. Good attention to detail. Great for writing clean programs and finding results in data.
- Trustworthy, open-minded and compassionate.
- Innovative and an independent thinker.

Education:

Nova Scotia Community College Institute of Technology:
- Information Technology Data Analyst Diploma (Sept. 2017 - May 2019).

Shelburne Regional High School:
- Earned High School Diploma in June 2017.

Experiences:

- Professional tutor who helped students develop an understanding and love for programming at NSCC (Fall 2017).
- Volunteered for Big Data Conference, North America's largest business-focused data conference (Nov. 7, 2017).

References

- Patrick Dolinger: 902-491-2386 (database programming instructor at NSCC)